TO-DAY'S NEWS IN BRIEF.

BUSINESS. Yesterday's bank clearings were $7,827,655; Yesterday's bank clearings were $1,521,000; balances $771,574. Local discount rates were firm between 5 and 6 per cent. Domestic exchange was quoted as follows. New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans, 10c discount bid, par asked. Wheat closed higher at 804,6804c Sept.; ENAMESC No. 2 red. Corn closed higher at 504,6604c bid Sept.; 504,6604c No. 2 mixed. Oats closed at 224c bid Sept.; 33c No. 2

The local market for spot cotton was un-

LOCAL AND SUBURBAN. Visiting merchants continued to throng the wholesale district and predicted a great

J. D. Houseman, general manager of the St. Louis, St. Charles and Western, re-moved to Ferguson, and probably will ex-tend his line to that point. He is working on a scheme to consolidate all the county electric roads.

Many prominent citizens are improving their homes for the entertainment of i Archipeld E. Mills of Mills & Averill dies at his home in Upper Alton.

Prosecution rested case in third trial of Harry A. Faulkner, charged with perjury. Frank Newman sues his father for Pontana of the House of Delegates denied knowledge of any reorganization plans. Ellisa Creed, 16 years old, confessed to having stolen a ring which she carried in her shoe, but she would not confess before her Birs Creed, 14 years old, was arrested on a charge of stealing a diamond, and ad-mitted carrying the ring in her shoe. Architects are busy preparing plans for approvements to many residences.

Weather Bureau will move from Federal milding to fifteenth floor of Chemical an-Pinkertons have been unable to locate W. C. Buchanan, missing cashier of the St.

Louis Gunning Company. Mrs. Clara Bachmann makes futile appeal to husband to tell her the whereabout her child, who, she says, he kidnaped.

GENERAL DOMESTIC.

Clair A. Orr of Kankakee, Ill., has been appointed Consul at Cartagena, Colombia. General Nelson A. Miles says that he is not a candidate for commander in chief of Secretary Root has addressed a communication to the Merchants' Bridge Company of St. Louis asking the company to show cause why the United States should not take possession of the bridge.

A young wife ends her life at Charleston a revolver in her mouth and ng the trigger.

District Superintendents G. E. Paine of the Postal Telegraph Company and George J. Frankel of the Western Union refused J. Franksi of the Western Union reluser to divulge to the Grand Jury the contents of the telegrams which passed between Daniel J. Kelley and former Lieutenant Governor John A. Lee, and Judge Hazell cited them to appear Thursday to show cause why they should not be in contempt

Mrs. Ida Guller of Bunker Hill, Ill., who is charged with the murder of little Ewart Checksfield, has filed habeas corpus proceedings for her release. Her attorney pro-poses to show that she is too ill to leave her bed and it would be death to remove her to jail.

The crops show much improvement after the rains of the last week. Corn has made good advancement in nearly all the States of the corn beit, except Alissour, where the crop is in all stages of development. Only a partial crop is expected in Missouri.
W. E. Corey is elected president of the United States Steel Corporation to succeed Charles M. Schwab, whose resignation is Several of the convicts who escaped from Folsom prison have been located and the Sheriff in charge of the posses in pursuit confidently expects a battle to-day.

Miss Ewing, the Missouri glantess, is to wed a French-Canadian glant, Edward pre, at Butte, Mont.

A minister who is undergoing treatment at the Jacksonville, Ill., Insane Asylum declares that he was sent there while under Four persons were drowned by the cap-sizing of a small hunch near Moline, Ill. Unrequited love prompted the suicide of a young man at Evansville.

FOREIGN.

The Governor of St. Vincent Island has invested $135,000 of the relief fund raised for the sufferers from the volcanic eruption "for the permanent good of the colony," though e is still much suffering from hunger disease among the refugees.

Cardinal Giuseppe Sarto was elected Pope on the seventh ballot of the conclave, and announced that he would rule as Plus X. SPORTING

Browns and White Sox split even on dou

The Young Corbett-Sullivan battle will be fought August 13 instead of August 19, as Winners at Delmar Park yesterday were Mollie T., Dootor Cartiedge, Enfalia, Rain-land, Eliza Dillon and Morris Vollmer. Work on the new race track commences to-day at the corner of Union avenue and Natural Bridge road.

The opening of the international tennis journament is disappointing, one British player defaulting his match and the other defeating his American opponent in straight

The Shamrocks engage in a sharp contest off Sandy Hook, the new boat winning handily in a twenty-two-knot breeze. Play begins in the golf tournament at Cleveland, all the St. Louis players hold-Queenstown, Aug. 4.—Arrived: Oceanic, New York, for Liverpool, and proceeded. Exerpool, Aug. 4.—Eniled: Aurania, New York, via Queenstown.

Marine Intelligence York, Aug. 4.-Arrived: Statendam

com Rotterdam; Kronprinz Wilhelm, from

Sonoma, San Francisco, via Mobile. Muroran, July 31.—Sailed: Machaon, Vic-Queenstown, Aug. 4.—Arrived: Friesland, Polindelphia, for Liverpool. New York, Aug. 4.—Arrived: Lahn, Genos

BOY KIDNAPED 12 YEARS AGO REUNITED TO MOTHER.

Orville Null, Located Through Par eut's Effort in Marion, O., Returns to Home in St. Louis.

After a search of twelve years, Mrs. Estabeth Null of No. 319 North Seventeenth atreet was united last night to her son, Or-Wille, who was kidnaped when a baby.

Orville, who is now 15 years old, was located at Marion, O., several days ago. Mrs.

SARTO'S ELECTION WAS ORESHADOWED IN REPUBLIC.

REPUBLIC.

ULY 12, 1903.

VATICAN FACTIONS MAY UNITE ON CARDINAL SARTO

Has Never Been Involved In Ecclesiastical Intrigues or Disputes and Is Profound Churchman.

SPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK ' Rome July IL-The remark of Pope Leo, stade in April of last year, when he pracarte as his successor, is upor being serious Barto as his successor, is new being seriously discussed in Vations circles.

The remark was made in the course of a conversation between the Peps and Pather Loremp Perost, the Italian composer

The Pops asked Pather Perost for news concerning Cardinal Gluseppe Carto, the Patriarch of Venice, for whom the Pops expressed much admiration, and thus adminished his visitor.

"Hold him very dear, Perist, as in the future he will be able to do much for you. We firmly believe he will be our successor."

The significance of the last sentence was much commented upon at the time since it is known that Cardinal Barto is a neutral and has never been involved in ecclesiastical

Who has strong chance of being elected division of the leading candidates to su Bince the Pope's Illness has become grave, him a compromise may be effected by elect many are of the opinion that in case of a ling Cardinal Sarto.

The above facsimile of a clipping from The Republic of July 12 shows that the election of Cardinal Sarto as supreme head of the Catholic Church should not be an entire

Three weeks ago The Republic's special cables from Rome called attention to Sarto' appealing qualifications for the pontificate and to the probability that the warring factions in the Sacred College might unite on the neutral, cultured and plous Patriarch of

Not only was The Republic the only paper in St. Louis to foreshadow the result of the conclave just concluded, but it was also the first St. Louis newspaper to announce the result of that historic election.

In an extra which was on the streets a few minutes after 6 o'clock The Republic told he people of St. Louis that Giuseppe Sarto had been proclaimed Pope on the seventh ballot of the conclave, at 11 o'clock in Rome, which was about 5 o'clock in St. Louis.

In little more than one hour the momentous news had been flashed across the ocean and half the continent by the tireless Associated Press, and The Republic had printed a newspaper telling all the essential facts about the election and the man whose name

No other morning newspaper issued an extra on the election of the new Pope. sounce the big news for several hours after The Republic had told the entire city all about it.

GIUSEPPE SARTO

POPE PIUS X HAS BEGUN HIS REIGN. Continued From Page One.

election was the will of Providence and HAD TO BE REVIVED BY USE OF SALTS.

Several times he almost fainted and had to be revived by the use of salts. He eemed happy but broken down even after all the other candidates had retired and, on the final ballot, he looked a statue of resignation.

ing out the vote. When forty-four votes had been recorded for the Patriarch of Venice, the scrutineer arose and lifted his

"We have elected a Pontiff." But form many sides Cardinals cried out:

As the vote approached fifty, however the Cardinals, as of one accord, surrounded the new Pontiff, and, according to tradition, demanded to know if he would accept the pontificate.

could hardly articulate, but, after a visible "If this cup cannot pass me -

There he paused, but the Cardinals around him insisted that it was necessary for him to answer "yes" or "no."

Thereupon he replied firmly: "Yet." Cardinal Gibbons, speaking to a representative of the Associated Press, said that the election of Cardinal Sarto had produced

he best impression in the entire Sacred College, because, being a man of such piety, tact and culture, he was best fitted to be the head of the church at the present

Cardinal Gibbons hopes that the coronation of Pius X will take place soom so that the foreign Cardinals may be able to as-vatican, order was coming out of chaos, sist. Others think that the coronation may be postponed for three months to a more propitious time.

the political attitude of the new Pope, inas-much as he has not participated in the general affairs of the church during his career TOWARD UNITED STATES

The general opinion, however, is that he will make no change in the relations between the Vatican and the Quirinal, exept perhaps to render them more courteous nasmuch as he enjoys the personal acquaintance with the King and members of the royal family. Queen Margherita holds him almost as a friend.

One of his first steps certainly will be to ameliorate the relation between the Vatican struggle against the congregations in Spain He is not oredited with being favorable to Austria, as he still remembers how much his fatherland suffered under the domina-

Plus X admires the progress of Catholiism in America and believes that the United States is a fertile field for Catholi-appointed Secretary of State are Ferrati. Prefecto of the Congregation of Bishops, Cavagnis and Vincenzo Vannutelli, Bisho

SPLENDID SCENES FOLLOWED ELECTION.

Pius X Borne on Shoulders of Cardinals to St. Peter's, Where He Was Greeted With Mighty Cheers and Where He Gave His First Pontifical Blessing-Showed Deepest Emotion and Desire to Escape Gaze of Multitude.

Giuseppe Sarto, Patriarch of Vonice, was two votes, or one more than the two-thirds necessary for election, there being sixty-two Cardinals in the conclave On the first ballot last Saturday, Cardinal Sarto received but one vote, Rampolla re-ceiving twenty-four, Serafino Vannuteili fifteen, and the remainder being divided between Cardinals Gotti, Oreglia and the peated for several ballots, and it was not until yesterday that Cardinal Sarto's candidature began to gain ground, some "neutral" Cardinals giving him their suffgot his supporters to give their votes to Cardinal Sarto, who thus obtained more due to a conflict between the liberal and lege, which rendered impossible the election of any of the more important candidates. The Sacred College selected Sarto as Pope him that existed in the cases of Rampolia. Scrafino, Vannutelli, Gotti and Oregija.

the office. There was a long pause and a dead silence fell upon the conclave. At last the kneeling man lifted his head, raised his eyes full of tears, to heaven, and replied in a firm voice:

The Camerlingo then asked the formal question: "What title will you adopt?" The new Pope replied: "Pius the Tenth." CARDINALS PAY THEIR "FIRST OBEDIENCES."

conclave, was drawing up the official act of the election and acceptance of the newly elected Pope, the latter, surrounded by his friends, disappeared into a small room near the altar, where he donned, with who can say what feelings of triumph and humility, the white robes of his office. first knelt and kissed his master's hand and thus received the first apostolic bless ing given by Pius X.

with the exception of red shoes, which was quite regular, but he did not stop to remove the red cardinal's stockings white papal ones, and these showed as he

He did not follow the precedent created by Pope Leo, who declined to give his red with such effect that scarcely an eye was Plus X then rose, and in a voice at first tremulous, but gradually becoming full and firm, administered the papal blessing to all of the members of the Sacred College. It was received with bowed and uncovered The fisherman's ring, not yet having been found, a new one, designed by Camerlingo Oreglia, was placed on the Pontiff's finger as a symbol of renewed power and evidence that the Catholic Church has once more

They came forward, one by one, some calm and smiling, others sober and non-committal, while still others found considerable difficulty, even at this hour, in con-

All kissed his hand and foot while he saluted each on the cheek with the kiss of peace. Then all broke into the Te Deum cealing their too obvious disappointment.

sovereign head. Sarto bore himself with becoming dignity and gave no outward sign of exultation in this the sumpreme moment of his life. BELLS OF ST. PETER'S ANNOUNCE GREAT NEWS. In the meanwhile masons and carpenters had been busy breaking down doors, so that the Cardinal deacons, together with the naster of ceremonies and the conclavists and many others, might proceed to the balcony of St. Peter's. The populace, waiting in the plazza, had already, at half-past o'clock, seen the tiny thread of smoke, almost transparent, which warned them wha to expect, so that when the windows on the balcony slowly opened and the great gleaming cross was seen, the excitement and im sationce heightened to the extreme. Slowly Cardinal Macchi, secretary of the congregation of apostolic briefs, advanced and exclaimed in a loud voice: "Annuntio vobis gaudium magnum habenus papem eminent issircum ac Reverendissimum Dominum Cardinalem, Joseph Sarto, qui sibi imposuit nomen Pium X." ("I announce to you with great pleasure that we taken the name of Pius X.") Then the bells of St. Peter's boomed out, as did those of all the churches of Rome, giving the glad news to the world.

tine Chapel after having performed his pious duty, the new Pope rose and an effort but Pius X was literally carried in triumph to his cell, followed by a great concourse and preceded by the cross. He was stopped every step or two by those anxious to kiss his ring and receive the papal blessing which Sarto accorded with great benignity

As the new Pope passed along many of hose present tried to prove that they had and how satisfied they all were. "Why, of course," shouted one, "before the conclave gathered, I always said it

If any of these compliments reached the ears of the Pontiff he gave no sign thereof. When he arrived at the door of his cell the Pope turned, and, raising his hands, gave in a voice almost suffocated with emotion his benediction to the assembly, which reand emotion of his election, Plus X joined his court in the ducal hall for the solemn benediction which he was about to give to the people of Rome. Although to ordinary eyes the confusion was as great as ever. to those practiced in the mysteries of the the Pope was much more formal. The babel of voices sank at his approach, while none ddressed him unless he spoke first.

The formal salutations having terminated. procession was formed. In the center was the Pontiff in his white robes, his figure standing out above those surrounding him. his silver hair gleaming under his white cap. He was surrounded by the Cardinals still in their violet robes and preceded by the pontifical cross, the jewels of which lashed as though they also triumphed in prelates seemed really jubilant in their joy and satisfaction.

oices, which, although subdued by distance ienoted the presence of a large concourse on him. It is almost terrifying." Standing forward in the window, the others having fallen back, he deliberately controlled himself and looked across the great Basilica. Crossing himself, Sarto raised his hand, and, in a voice palpably tremulous, he said, as soon as the cries from below gave an opportunity:

(Hear us in the name of the Master.) To this came in reply from thousands of voices the cry:
"Qui fecit coelum et terram." (Who made heaven and earth.) In a thrilling voice the Pope responded: "Sit nomen Domini benedictum." (May the name of the master be blessed.)

and leaning forward as much as possible: he chanted like the keys of a magnificent will ever forget, All crossed themselves and with magical rapidity the scene ceased to be one of deep devotion. Loud cheers burst from the people as the Pope started to go back to the Vatican, by way of the terrace. These acclamations continued long after Plus X had disappeared.

NEW POPE MODEST, KIND AND CULTURED; ADDRED BY PEOPLE.

'tailor," and Pius X, when a young seminarist, being rather elegant in his priestly robes, his companions used to joke, saying began his education at a seminary at Tre viso, and continued it at Padus, the seat of the famous university, one of the best

Pius X was only 23 years old when he was consecrated a priest at Castel Franco, the birth place of the great master, Giorgione, acting afterwards for nine years a Province of Padua, a small village of 2.95 murmur of approval. This is taken as a certain indication that the happy recipient GIUSEPPE SARTO ONE of Eight CE is soon to be raised to the cardinalate.

As the new Pontiff stepped from behind the altar, the only touch of color about him being his red and gold shoes, he really seemed to be the embodiment of his holy office. His face was pale and clearly softened by emotion. He paused a moment as he came before the expectant Cardinals, then seated himself on the throne with a hurried movement, as though he had suddenly grown weak. His back was to the altar, and he was enthroned to serve the so-called "first obedience" of the Cardinals.

They came formula the cardinalate.

OF EIGHT CHILDREN.

Rome, Aug. 4.—The new Pope is the sixers is the six daughters. One of his his lesters is the six daughters. One of his holy one as the cardinals, and the married to a wineshop keeper, while the others are unmarried. His elder the others are unmarried. The new Pope is the seventh who has come from the region of Venice.

The new Pope is the seventh who has come from the region of Venice.

Among the Venetian Popes was Benter the altar, who has come from the region of Venice.

Among the Venetian Popes was Benter the altar, who has come from the region of Venice. OF EIGHT CHILDREN. .

edict XII, who, by a coincidence, was elected Pope exactly 539 years ago to-

........... to be nothing of the kind. He gave freely of his very small means, until he often went without meals himself, but he kept many a poor family from starvation. In 1867 he was appointed parish priest at Salzano, which was considered an important promotion, being a village of 3,341 souls. Still he was exceedingly sorry to leave Tombolo, having become attached to the people. The peasants, when he left, made a most enthusiastic demonstration, crying: "Viva, Don Guiseppa!" while many women whose children he had nursed went confously.

He distinguished himself so much at Salzano that he was only kept there two years, which is remarkable in the career of an Italian parish priest. In 1875 he was elected chancellor of the Bishopric of Treviso, then spiritual director of that seminary; Judge of the ecclesiastical tribunal, and finally Vicar General.

HOW SARTO BECAME IDOL OF THE VENETIANS Pope Leo, who had highly appreciated his cleverness, plety and modesty, appointed him in November, 1884, at the age of 49 years, Bishop of Mantua, where he remained nine years, until 1893, when he was nade a Cardinal, and appointed Patriarch He there distinguished himself as a thor ough reformer, suppressing all abuses, restoring the dignity of the clergy and the earnestness of religion, To him is due the revival of a Gregorian chant in the beautiful churches overlooking the lagoons, and to him is due the strict lithurgic rules. From his appointment rose heated polemles between the Holy See and the Italian Government. The latter, as helr to the ncient privileges granted by the Pope of the Republic of Venice, sustained that it had the right to choose and appoint the Patriarch. The Government, however, after having long refused its exequateur, eventu ally granted it to Sarto, who meanwhil succeeded in gaining general esteem, including that of the Government officials. The Italian Cabinet has no feeling against Sarto personally. In fact, he might quite well have been their choice if the papacy had not wished him, but it was a political Sarto became the idol of the Venetians. When his gondola went through the canals the people rushed on the bridges and along the sides of the canals, kneeling and saluing, the women exclaiming, "God bless the did not like to go out of sight of the lions of St. Mark, which now he will never see again, if, as is almost sure, he follows the rule inaugurated by his two predecessors, never to leave the Vatican. In a few cases in which he came to on returning, when asked if he enjoyed the gorgeousness of the papal court and the magnificence of the functions, Sarto answered:

MODEST AND FRANK, HE DETESTS PUBLICITY. He has very modest tastes, having retained almost the same habits as when he was a mere curate at Salpazo. He was se-

There is nothing he dislikes so much as publicity, detesting the praise and complihis principal qualities, although he is some

DEFENSE SUBPOENAS

COMBINE MEMBERS.

or second meetings of the con Tamblyn replied that he did not. "Now, at the third meeting," asked Rowe

"I can't remember that he did," replied

Lemmon Parker, who was a member of the House of Delegates in 1900, but not con-nected with the combine, testified that he for the purpose of controlling legislation. The defense objected to the question and was overruled. "Yes," replied the witness, On cross-examination Mr. Parker was isked by Attorney Rowe: "Mr. Parker, as I understand it, all you seen this defendant and other House mempers go into the ante-room and that you have found the door locked. Is that so?" "Yes, sir."

TESTIMONY BEFORE GRAND JURY. William H. Lee, president of the Merchants' Laciede National Bank, who fore man of the December Grand Jury in 1901 estified that Faulkner told the Grand Jury that he had not heard of and did not know of the $75,000 except what he had read in the newspapers. member of the House of Delegates when the Suburban bill was introduced. He declared that he did not attend any of the combine meetings and did not know what went on when the combine members met behind closed doors in the House of Delegates ante-chamber. He was not a member of the combine.

George F. Robertson, a combine mer gave testimony corroborating that of John K. Murrell and William M. Tamblyn in his replies to Circuit Attorney Folk's questions. Robertson went further than the other witnesses and told of the several combine neetings at which the $75,000 deal was under discussion. He said Faulkner attended all of these meetings. FAULKNER WAS PRESENT.

Robertson declared that Faulkner was it was Philip Stock with whom he was

Mr. Folk brought out from the witness the statement that Faukner, a year ago, asked him to testify in his favor at his trial Mr. Rowe subjected Robertson to a severe

"Are you certain," asked Rowe, "that you did not testify at the trial of this case last neeting where Murrell showed a receipt "I am positive that I did not."

Faulkner's former trials. At the first trial of Faulkner Robertson had not turned State's evidence and was a witness in the the House of Delegates from the Twenty-

Attorney Rowe asked the witness a num ber of questions as to his testimony at

Scruggs Vanderroort's Barney

We Have Finished Stock-Taking

In Silk and Dress Goods Departments.

THE USUAL PRICE REDUCTIONS WILL FOLLOW.

Sale Opens Thursday, August 6.

A Positive Cure for Dyspepsia and Indigestion be a very strong one, but EUPEPSIA TABLETS have cured the most severe cases and are now curing hundreds of others. The formula is the prescription of a specialist, and is prescribed by prom-inent physicians in their daily practice. It is clean and harmless and pleasant to take, and we appeal to every one who is troubled with Heartburn, Bloated Stomach, Dizziness, Gas on the Stomach, Loss of Appetite or any stomach derangements to try our remedy. It is true we cannot cure every one, but we guarantee to cure $ cases out of 100, and will refund your money if we fail. No other remedy on earth does or can do more, and no other medicine has ever been more openly indorsed. From the first its formula was and is to-day freely furnished to physicians in good standing.

"I have had such gratifying results from the use of EUPEPSIA TABLETS, in some of the most stubborn cases of dyspepsia created by ma, that I deem !: due to you to acknowledge the value I place on them as a perfect remedy for stomach trouble."

A. B. BOLTON, M. D., Ph. D., II Bainbridge st., Brooklyn, N. T. "I have never found anything to equal EUP EPSIA" TABLETS, and I cheerfully recomme them to any one suffering from stomach trouble or dyspepsia."

E. M. BARH VIE. 472 E. Eighth st., Kansas City, Mo.

THE EUPEPSIA CHEMICAL CO., 323 Clark Ave., ST. LOUIS, MO.

eighth Ward, testified that Faulkner was dentified with the combine.

Edward E. Murrell declared that Faulkner was a member of the combine and that he attended the several meetings at which the Suburban deal was under dis-cussion. He said Faulkner was present Murrell to see that the $75,000 was placed in the safety deposit box. He declared also that Faulkner was present when John K. Murrell reported that the money was in a box at the Lincoln Trust Company. Murrell declared that Faulkner also was present at a meeting where some of the nembers wanted to pass the bill, even after the court had issued an injunction prohibiting its passage. At a subsequent meeting, Murrell said some doubt was entertained whether the money was up, and that John K. Murrell reported, in Faulkner's presence, that the money was in the Lincoln Trust Company vault. On cross-examination Murrell declared that he never gow Faulkner at a meeting at Schnettler's Hall. MONEY IS DEPOSITED. George P. Potes told of the $75,000 being deposited by Murrell and Stock in the vaults of the Lincoln Trust Company, of which department he is manager.

Otto Schumacher, combine member, cor oborated the testimony of John K. and E. E. Murrell, Tamblyn and Robertson. On cross-examination Schumacher said he learned for the first time that the $75,000 was up at a meeting at Schnettler's Hall. "That was the meeting at which Murrell showed the key and receipt, was it not?" Was the defendant there?" "No, sir. He was not."

"Did you attend all of the meetings?"

H. A. Buck, former official Grand Jury stenographer, read from his notes Faulk ner's testimony before the Grand Jusy. John Helms, on both direct and cros amination, testified that Faulkner attended the meeting at Schnettler's Hall when the safety-deposit box key and receipt were exhibited combine members, said Heims, "whether Murrell had received the money. Just before the last meeting Murrell asked that all of the members be present, as he square. For this reason, I am positive that were present, and saw the key and receipt shown by Murrell. Circuit Attorney Folk announced at 5:30 o'clock that the State would rest its case Montague Lyons, a lawyer, of No. 5862 Cates avenue; R. H. Collins, No. 6300 Columbia avenue; Thomas F. Cahiil, Kirkwood, Mo.; Lawrence P. Harrigan, liveryman Bambrick, contractor, No. 3527 Manchester avenue, testified that Faulkner's reputation for truth and veracity was good.

Circuit Attorney Folk asked of the witnesses if they had ever served in the House of Delegates with Faulkner. All replied they they had not. Quinlivan, No. 6032 Cates avenue, and John

Dr. Hoffman's Red Drops, king of all cholera remedies, cure colic, cramps, chol-tra morbus and diarrhea instantly; 25c.

Hit Over the Head With a Glass Henry Johanning, a cigarmaker, suffered and Back

August 1 to 14

ALL THE WAY through Southwest Land of E Personally conducted excurs tain days, via Grand Canyon of A at alight extra cost.

Ask for particulars of low Call cursion rate from your home station. A. ANDREWS, Gen'l Agt.

HAY FEVER and ASTHMA

$21.00 To NEW YORK B. & O. S-W

Trains Loave Daily 9:30 a. m., 9:08 p. m., 2:05 a. m. OULT LINE RUNNING THROUGH SLEEPERS AT THIS VERY LOW BATE. Olive and Sixth and Union S

Sore muscles, aching bones, neuralgia, extreme debility, and great depression—all due to malarial poisoning. The cure is prompt and never-failing with

Ayer's Malaria and Ague Cure

As a sure preventive, take one or two doses each day. Not an unfavorable symptom follows its use.

Rob by J. C. ATTR CO., Lorell, Ro

Orville, who was kidnaped when a bany.

Orville, who is now 15 years old, was local cated at Marion, O., several days ago. Mrs.

Null sent transportation and he started for St. Louis.

He arrived last night and was met at has Union Station by his mother, whom he did not remember.

The boy was i years old when he was taken from his home while playing in front off the house. A distant relative, it was hater 'remed, took the boy.

Search was made to locate the boy, but Search was made to locate the boy, but for many years no trace of the child was found. Finally Mrs. Null heard that her son was fiving in a small Ohio town. She endsavored to reclaim him, but was unsuc-cessful. The man who kidnaped the boy had tanight him to regard him as his father and all attempts to claim him were frus-trated.

SPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK | approached and asked him if he accepted the office. There was a long pause and a Rome, Aug. 4.—(Copyright, 1903.)—Cardinal dead silence fell upon the conclave. At other candidates. The same distribution of votes was re-

Cardinal Sarto's election to the papacy is

When the tellers read the votes on final ballot, and it became evident that Car-dinal Sarto was elected, those nearest to him began to whisper their congratulations. and all attempts to claim him were true-fracted.

She again lost track of them until several days ago, and she invoked the ald of Chief of Poice Cornwell of Marion. He informed Mail of his parentage and the latter, fell on his knees and buried his face in his hands.

Then the latter congratulations. Again and again. He closed his result his head to his breast and his lips moved. When the result was verified Sarto, taking no notice of his companions, want to the altar, fell on his knees and buried his face in his hands.

"I do."

While Prince Chigi, the master of the

When he was quite robed, the secretary of the conclave, Mgr. Merry del Val, kneeling, offered him the papal white cap.

cap to the master of ceremonies as a sign that he would soon be created a Cardinal, but with a slight smile Barto took the white cap, placed it calmly on his head, and dropped the red one lightly on the head of Mgr. Merry del Val. amidst a winter night to a death bed, which proved the red one lightly on the head of Mgr. Merry del Val. amidst a have elected as Pope the Most Eminent Reverend Cardinal, Joseph Sarto, who has As Cardinal Macchi returned to the Sisceived it on bended knees. After a short rest, imposed by the fatigue

NEW POPE BLESSES MULTITUDE FROM WINDOW. until it approached the window into St. Peter's. From below rose a murmur of and then turning to Cardinal Bacilieri, who stood beside him, he said: "Now I understand the emotion Pope Le always showed when going into St. Peter's o have the eyes of a great crowd focussed organ struck by a master hand.

"Auditorium nostrum in nomine, Domini."

"The response swelled up from the crowd below. There was another silence and another response. Then came the benediction, such as few

Then the thousands streamed out, all happy at the conclave's choice of the Pontiff, and heartly glad that the suspense

Rome, Aug. 4-"Sarto," in Italian, means

The new Pope used then to say that h

"When I am there I feel like a fish out of water."

Continued From Page One. pany with whom he was dealing at the first did Mr. Murrell say anything about the money being in the Lincoln Trust Company vault, and that he had one key and Stock had the other key?"

knew that a combine existed in the House "Was the defendant a member of the know about this matter is that you have present at the Schnettler's Hall meeting. At this meeting, according to John K. Murposit box were shown to the combine member by him and he told the members that cross-examination. week that Faulkner was not present at a and key and mentioned Stock's name?"

Charles W. Holtcamp, former member of California

From St. Louis and $45 from Kansse City, account G. A. R. National Encamp-ment, San Francisco, Atchison, Topeka & Senta Fe Rallway, 1 108 N. Fourth St., St. Louis, Ma.

DR. HAYES, BUFFALO, N.Y.

fracture of the skull in a fight with Th odore King in Williams's saloon at No. 10 Olive street yesterday afternoon. King struck Johanning with a heavy beer giose and escaped. Johanning is at the City Hospital. Doctor Brown mays the injured man's condition is serious.